

K-Love provides an invaluable service to my family and community that I live in. Without the sounds and praises heard from this family oriented radio station I wouldn't listen to the radio.

By broadcasting truth and love this radio station provides a safe haven for families and individuals that rarely can find other means of listening outside of the normal shock jocks and liberal comment currently polluting the airways of America.